March 7 – May 1, 2019

Steven Silverleaf was born in 1954 and grew up between New York City, Athens Greece and Chapel Hill, North Carolina. He attended the University of Wisconsin, Milwaukee during the 1970s where he studied painting and drawing.

He was active in the local art, poetry and experimental theatre scene in Milwaukee. He returned to North Carolina in 1980 living in the mountains and on the coast before becoming a leading figure in the Raleigh-Durham Chapel Hill art community. His work has been exhibited in numerous solo and juried shows and included in many corporate collections.

"I work both in abstract and figurative styles and in any medium that will make a mark upon a surface. The work presented in this show is acrylic and collage on rag board or paper."

I maintain a studio in Carrboro, NC and invite studio visits by appointment. I am usually working on several projects at once and am working on making my studio one of the most creative spots in the triangle."
