

Call for DUHS Employee Participation

Duke Health Employee Art Show

- Due to COVID-19 all dates are tentative at this time -

Accepting Entries: Tuesday, July 7, 2020 from noon – 2 p.m. at the Mars Gallery Hall.

Exhibit Dates: July 7 – September 1, 2020 @ the Mars Galleries, Duke North

For over 40 years, Arts & Health at Duke has believed that access to the arts is essential to the health and well-being of patients & staff.

Therefore, we invite and encourage all Duke Health Physicians & Staff to share your work in this all inclusive Duke Health Employee Art Show.

Works can be a visual representation of how you recharge, find inspiration, or reveal a talent not usually shared in your workplace.

Eligibility – Current Duke Health Employees & Volunteers are eligible to participate.

Artwork must be original (no copies), be completed within the last 3 years, and not previously displayed at Duke University Hospital.

Medium – Two and three-dimensional pieces will be accepted, including but not limited to oils, acrylics, graphite, charcoal, clay, wood, beadwork, metal, glass, paper, photographs and mixed media.

Size & Number of Submissions – We will accept two-dimensional (2d) works no larger than 30" h x 30" w x 6" d and three-dimensional (3d) works no larger than 30" h x 30" w x 12" d. All works must be dry and ready to hang with hanging wire securely attached to the back of all 2d works, and stable bases on 3d works. Due to limited space, we can only accept one piece per participant at this time.

No Pre-Registration, Classification or Awards – We no longer require pre-registration, classifications or offer monetary awards. Each entry will be equally appreciated and displayed.

Arts & Health reserves the right to reject work whose theme may be unacceptable or inappropriate for this venue, and works that are not completely dry or threaten to damage other works due to instability of hanging devices or bases. Any works brought over the size limit will only be installed if space permits.
