Healing with Nature

Photographs by
Barbara Driscoll
& Elaine Manning

July 6 – August 29, 2017

“My goal is to bring the beauty, complexity and serenity of nature into people’s lives so they may enjoy and connect with the refreshing wonders of nature in many settings. My works are realistic depictions of what I see either through the photographic medium or through fiber art.”

~ Barbara Driscoll

“I have been photographing nature since the 1970’s. For me, it is always new and enlightening... There is so much beauty and wonder in nature. You just have to open your eyes and look, and have your camera at the ready. I believe that images of natural beauty strengthen the human body and spirit.”
