Cary Photographic Artists Member's Exhibit

March 1 – May 2, 2018

Founded in 2007, Cary Photographic Artists' mission is to learn, teach and share the passion for photography, and to establish a forum in which individuals with an interest in the art of photography may share the photographic experiences.

Many of the 14 members seen in this exhibit also have their work in the Permanent Art Collection of Duke University Hospital and can be seen in patient rooms and waiting areas.

To learn more about Cary Photographic Artist visit their website, www.caryphotographicartists.org or visit their facebook page, Cary Photographic Artists

This exhibit is free and open to the public.
